

47th Annual Orchids and Onions Awards Nomination Applications are OPEN!

Nominate an Individual or Organization for the 47th Annual Orchids and Onions Awards

This year marks the forty-seventh year that Preservation Idaho has hosted the Orchids and Onions Awards are a statewide hallmark, showcasing and celebrating individuals and organizations that have contributed positively to historic preservation in Idaho, as well as to bring awareness to those projects that have shown insensitivity to Idaho's cultural history. To do this, WE NEED YOUR HELP! We want to hear from our community about what preservation projects you think are worthy of celebrating. Use the form below to submit a nomination by Friday, June 14, 2024. We can't wait to hear from you!

Orchids

Outstanding examples of preservation projects or practices can be awarded in the following categories:

Building Projects & Programs

Excellence in Historic Preservation: Awarded to projects that have demonstrated outstanding adherence to the Secretary of the Interior's Standards in preservation, restoration, renovation, or adaptive reuse (residential or commercial).

Contribution to Historic Preservation: Awarded to projects that have been successful in the tasteful restoration, addition, or remodel of an existing building (residential or commercial).

Preservation-Sensitive New Construction: Awarded to new construction that enhances a historic neighborhood or historical theme (residential or commercial).

Cultural Heritage Preservation: Awarded to educational programs and projects that have made a positive impact toward the preservation of cultural heritage and open spaces, as well as the restoration and rehabilitation of historic landmarks and roadside architecture.

Individuals & Organizations

Friend of Preservation: Awarded to non-professional individuals distinguished for service in historic preservation. This would include, but would not be limited to, those who volunteer for preservation organizations, historical societies, or museums.

Distinguished Preservationist: Awarded to professionals distinguished for service in historic preservation. Nominees for this award would be those whose job it is to further the cause of Historic Preservation in Idaho through direct projects or education.

Heritage Stewardship: Awarded to organizations or individuals that have shown dedication to historic preservation through the long-term maintenance and care of historic, architecturally significant, or culturally important sites and structures.

Scott Chandler Award for Excellence in Craftsmanship: Awarded to individuals worthy of acknowledgment for their body of work and contributions to their craft. This award is in memoriam to Scott Chandler, who embodied attention to detail, commitment to quality and integrity, and dedication to historic preservation.

Onions

Onions: Examples of projects or programs insensitive to historic preservation can be awarded to individuals or corporations who demolish historically significant buildings or sites, or new construction that is insensitive or ignorant of the neighborhood's history.

PURPOSE CENTER

Introducing the Purpose Center, a stunning renovation of one of Pocatello's iconic historic buildings.

The historic Petersen Building, originally built in 1913 and owned by T.C. Martin, hosted Petersen Furniture from 1921 until the 1990s. In the late 1990s it was acquired and turned into Scott's Ski and Sport. The Purpose Center is a reimagining of an architectural classic that remains true to its 20th century design while creating a warm and inviting space for generations to come. In 2023, the Purpose Center received an Orchid Award in the Excellence in Historic Preservation category.
